

Wise Owl Newsletter Contributions for Publication Policy

U3A Southern Highlands mission statement:

"U3A Southern Highlands offers opportunities for members to learn, share and explore interests in a positive social environment".

The purpose of the Wise Owl publication of Southern Highlands U3A is to benefit its member through the publication of news, articles and information.

Any articles which are submitted for publication must comply with the following policy guidelines.

- U3ASH is an independent, non-political organisation.
- U3ASH does not support the use of facilities, classes, or communication systems for sales, promotion, or advertising related to commercial ventures or events.
- Articles related to courses or course presenters can be offered to assist the U3A Committee to modify, expand, repeat or discontinue a course.
- Feedback articles must be constructive in content.
- Articles submitted must be relevant to the aims of the mission statement above.
- Any text or photographs included from other sources must comply with copyright laws.
- All articles must bear the name of the author or an appropriate attribution such as a website link.
- The Committee reserves the right to reject or edit any contribution offered for publication.
